O. Boone, Jr., consolidation to Mr. Sam O'Neil and guest prizes to Miss Mable Thurman and Mrs. Beatrice Gray. Miss Mable Thurman and Mrs. Beatrice Gray left for their homes in Kansas City and Marshall Saturday morning. Quarterly meeting Sunday was quite a success at St. Paul. During the day $115.00 was raised. This is due to our hustling pastor, Rev. M. S. Bryant. We predict for him glorious things for his flock. He is here for good to the Race as a leader as well as spiritually. Watch for the returns of his big rally in May. We are glad to announce the marriage of Mr. Hubert Cochran of Columbia and Miss Sarah Crawford of St. Louis on the 12th inst. in St. Louis at the residence of Mrs. Sinie Jackson, 1321 Goode avenue. BOISE, IDAHO.

By Vera Allen Smith.
The contagious diseases called Spanish influenza, which has caused so much disaster, is slowly but surely calming down. Boise may be called lucky, for among the race there has been only one case of influenza and that one did not prove fatal. We are having wonderful spring-like weather, which may be the cause of the influenza decrease. On last Sunday evening Rev. King officiated at the A. M. E. Church, illustrating wonderfully two beautiful pictures, Daniel in the Lion's Den and the Hebrew Children in the Fiery Furnace. The congregation sat spellbound while the sermon was carried on. Mr. R. B. Smith is still on the mend. Mrs. Anna B. Price, who was called to this city to attend the funeral of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, left Saturday afternoon for her home in Portland, Oregon.

HELENA, MONTANA.

By J. E. W. Clarke.

"Every potter praises his own pot and the more if it be cracked."

The Pleasant Hour Club is blessed with an increased interest on the part of its members with the passing of each week. The meeting of the 12th, at the residence of Mrs. George M. Lee, Sr., was well attended and the paper, "How Success Is Won," by Mrs. Robert Houston, contained gems of serious thought and was highly instructive. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Julian Anderson was hostess at an elaborate course dinner complimentary to Mrs. W. R. Edwards of Anaconda. A low crystal bowl of beautiful violets and marigolds decorated the center of a table with covers for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. W. Clarke, Mesdames Louise J. Harrison and Sarah Morris; Messrs. Spencer Smith and Julian Anderson, Jr. Master Page Anderson, chief servant, mastered the intricacies of the elaborate service with the deftness and coolness of an expert of years' training, while his younger brother, Joe, rendered valuable assistance. Music and conversation followed, and the 10th was declared a memorable occasion.

Mr. Craver from Y. M. C. A. headquarters, was a welcome visitor last week.

The debate, the feature of the February Rhetoricals, was well attended in view of the inclement weather. Through no fault of the judges, residents of the Kansas Cities, two were not present and members of the faculty kindly consented to act. The decision was rendered in favor of the Junior class, represented by Messrs. Wilson Green and Frank Brown. Their opponents were Miss Novella Patton and Mr. James Russell. The argumentative ability evidenced on this occasion was highly creditable.

We were favored last week by a visit from two members of the Legislature, Mr. N. L. Johnson and Dr. L. L. Uhl. After inspecting our plant they met the students in chapel and expressed themselves as highly pleased with what they had seen and the excellent manner in which President Peck is handling the school's affairs. Several selections were given by the students, among those singing being Miss Moten and Mr. Cogswell. Prof. Crews was called upon the reply to the addresses of the representatives, which he did to the entire satisfaction of the institution as well as our honored guests.
